

Procurement and Contracting Procedure	Procedure Number	4.2.1P
	Effective Date	May 18, 1988

1.0 PURPOSE

It is the intent of Laramie County Community College (“LCCC”) to establish procedures and guidelines that define the processes used to promote, provide, and ensure that centralized procurement services for LCCC are consistent and compliant with the College’s policies and procedures, State of Wyoming Statutes and federal requirements such as the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC). By delegation of the Vice President of Administration and Finance, the Director of Procurement and Contracting is responsible for all procurement functions; for maintaining a uniform set of procedures and forms to implement processes regarding solicitation and acquisition of goods and services through quotes, bids, proposals and contractual agreements; and to assist and provide guidance and support to LCCC in the acquisition of goods and services in accordance with College policies and procedures. The primary responsibility of the Purchasing Office is to ensure the proper, prompt and responsive procurement of all supplies, equipment, goods, materials, and services for the College. This charge applies to all college funds; therefore all procurement activities shall be completed by either the Purchasing Office or under the direct order, guidance, or supervision of this office. To achieve this objective, the responsibilities, authorities and controls set forth in this procedure, and all related policies, procedures and manuals shall be adhered to by all college employees.

- 4) Seeks or dispenses no personal favors, and handles each administrative problem objectively and empathetically without discrimination.
- 5) Identifies and eliminates participation of any individual in operational situations where a conflict of interest may be involved.
- 6) Obtains maximum ultimate value from each dollar expended for products or services.
- 7) Grants equal consideration to all competitive bidders; each transaction is evaluated on its own merit and fair, ethical, and legal trade practices are followed.
- 8) Requires honesty from sales representatives, whether through verbal or written statement, advertisement, or product sample.
- 9) Uses only by consent, those original ideas and designs devised by one vendor for competitive purchasing purposes.
- 10) Cooperates with professional and trade organizations and governmental and private agencies engaged in furthering the promotion and development of the Purchasing profession.

C. Responsibilities

- 1) The primary responsibility is to provide for the procurement of materials, goods, supplies, equipment and services with the objective that they will be available at the proper time, in the proper place, in quantity, quality and price consistent with the needs of the College. This balancing of several factors is critical if procurement is to be successful.
- 2) The Director of Procurement and Contracting has the responsibility for the procurement of all goods, materials, supplies, equipment and services, and to provide this service for such procurement or give functional direction to others delegated to perform such services.
- 3) Employees involved in the procurement process shall take full responsibility for understanding and complying with the College's policies and procedures regarding procurement and vendor relations, acknowledging that procurement decisions are business decisions made on behalf of LCCC and therefore should be made with the utmost consideration for what is in the best interest of the College.
- 4) Only those persons with authority delegated by LCCC President and/or the Vice President of Administration and Finance Services are authorized to make commitments on behalf of LCCC for goods, materials, supplies, equipment and services.
- 5) The Purchasing Office is responsible for initiating and maintaining effective and professional relationships with vendors, suppliers and contractors.
- 6) The Purchasing Office is to serve as the channel through which procurement services are administered in accordance with college policies and procedures.
- 7) All employees involved in procurement activities will work to maintain and enhance the LCCC image by their personal conduct and methods of doing business.

- 8) All employees engaged in procurement activities shall recognize and practice good public relations by giving all callers and visitors courteous treatment.

C. Objectives

- 1) Ensure uninterrupted procurement activity by obtaining and ensuring delivery of acceptable quality of goods and services.
- 2) Develop reliable alternative sources of supply to meet college requirements.
- 3) Comply, in all respects, with College policies and procedures and with all applicable laws and provisions.
- 4) Procure goods and services for college use at the maximum end-use and use value per dollar spent.
